FULL BODY THERMOGRAPHY (with breasts)

PATIENT INFORMATION

Therrmography is a noninvasive imaging technique that is intended to measure temperature distribution of organs and tissues. The visual display of this temperature information is known as a thermogram. Review of thermal studies emphasizes the need to establish a baseline of the patient's normal (stable) 'thermal fingerprint'. This is done by comparative analysis of two studies, three months apart. Once a stable baseline has been established for the individual patient, screening tests once every year will detect any changes that might indicate developing pathology.

Preparing for your digital thermal scan:

It is very important that you follow the recommendations on the Patient Preparation Checklist for an accurate scan!

Procedure:

You will be required to remove all clothing to allow the surface of your body to cool to an ambient room temperature. After approximately 15 minutes, we will take a series of thermal images.

Cold Challenge Test

At this facility we do not do the cold challenge test. This is a procedure where the patient puts her hands in cold water before taking more images. Long term observations regarding the low rates of correlation between the results of cold stress tests and case histories and the growing evidence of false positives and false negatives has led our professional interpretation team to abandon recommending cold stressing of breasts. Our interpretation team uses a more logical and efficient approach, which relies on the detection of changes in the breast over time, which is considered to be far more objective and reliable.

About the test:

The test is very comfortable and totally non-invasive. You will be disrobed relevant to the area of study to allow the surface of your body to cool to an ambient room temperature. Images will then be taken for the full body screening. The camera does not emit radiation of any kind and there is no compression of breasts. This procedure is pain free and safe. The number of people involved in the procedure will be limited to protect your privacy.

Time before test results are available:

Results are usually available within two weeks.

Cost of test:

Thermography is not yet paid by insurance companies. . For this reason we consider this an alternative service, not requiring a doctor's order and payable at the time of service. Current rates are as follows:

Procedure Code	Description	Standard Fee	Pre-Pay package
THBR1	Thermogram Breast, 1st Study	$160.00	$220.00
THBR2	Thermogram Breast, 2nd Study	$110.00

FULL BODY THERMOGRAPHY (with breasts)
INFORMED CONSENT FOR FULL BODY THERMOGRAPHY

Instructions: PLEASE READ CAREFULLY. If you are in agreement with this consent form, please sign and date at the bottom. Please ask questions if there is anything that you do not understand on this consent form.

Thermography is simply a procedure utilizing thermal imaging cameras to visualize and obtain an image of the infrared radiation (heat) coming from the surface of the skin. The Thermographic procedure is performed as an aid to the evaluation of abnormal temperature patterns which may or may not indicate the presence of a disease process.

The thermographic procedure is NOT a standalone diagnostic tool. It is an adjunctive tool, which while reliable, should be used by the primary care physician along with other diagnostic tests and analysis so as to arrive at a provisional or more complete diagnosis. No surgical procedure should be based on breast thermal imaging alone. Procedures such as mammography, ultrasound, MRI, palpation, biopsy, etc., are needed to arrive at a final diagnosis. Thermography does not "see" inside the body, but shows heat imbalances in the body that may be caused by many things from cancer to inflammation.

I understand that I will be disrobed relevant to the area of study to allow the surface of my body to cool to an ambient room temperature. I will then be examined with an electronic thermographic camera. I understand this procedure does not use radiation, compression, and that it is not harmful to me. I understand that this procedure's sole function is to map the heat patterns coming from my body.

I understand that it is my responsibility to provide my health care provider with my report for further diagnosis and analysis in the overall evaluation of my health. I have been given a patient preparation form to insure the most accurate thermographic evaluation possible, and I agree that I have completed the requirements of this form and that I have complied with the protocol sheet attached regarding the pre-examination requirements.

Your test will be interpreted by a Board Qualified, or Board Certified Thermologist. It is important to understand that temperature changes can be due to pathological changes as well as artifacts such as rashes, swelling, bruises, and scratching, etc. Your interpretation may require follow-up testing to rule out these issues/ Some pathologic changes may not show up due to their location being too deep within the body tissue, or overlaying factors. Breast implants can mask thermographic changes secondary to tumor activity. The thermographer will not act as a health care provider, but as a thermography and will report on thermographic findings only.

I am aware that this procedure is not covered by insurance and that the office fee is due and payable at the time of service unless special provisions have been made with the office in advance.

Having understood the above, and having received satisfactory answers to all questions that I may have had concerning the purpose, outcome, benefits and risk factors of thermographic evaluation as well as the utilization of the procedure, I consent to the thermographic examination of my breast/body by the examining doctor(s) and/or technicians.
